

For ONE NIGHT only.

At on day, July 1829.

Will be presented a New Species of Entertainment (in three Parts) entitled

A Dramatic OLLIO

Or, Something to please every Palate.

In which the most STRIKING BEAUTIES of the most admired Authors, will be introduced: Tragic, Comic, Satirical and Humorous.

P A R T I.

An occasional PROLOGUE, including the IMMORTAL SHAKESPEARE'S
"SEVEN AGES OF MAN," from AS YOU LIKE IT.

HAMLET and the GHOST.

SIR JOHN FALSTAFF, and PRINCE of WALES. HENRY 4th.

SONG. "Zooks! that an old Man can't keep a Chicken."

FAIR PENITENT. HORATIO and LOTHARIO.

P A R T II.

A THEATRE in MINITURE.

In which the most CELEBRATED CHARACTERS of the present Age will make their Appearance; particularly,

MARGARET NICHOLSON, who attempted to stab his MAJESTY.

The BRITISH TAR, who saw the brave CAPTAIN FARMER perish.

SIR JACKY JEHU, the noted NEWMARKET JOCKEY.

A modern GROANER and GRINNER.

The late GEORGE ALEXANDER STEVENS, and DAVID GARRICK.

SIR DILBERRY DIDDLE and LADY, with a MATRIMONIAL DUETT.

And a Present for each Lady (who honors the Exhibition with their presence) and will make them appear lovely as long as they chuse to wear it.

SONG. "The Golden Days of good Queen Bess."

P A R T III.

GOLDSMITH'S "Country Clergyman" recited.

BEAUX STRATAGEM. ARCHER and SCRUB.

SONG. "Twiddle and a Friz." In the Character of a Hunch'd Back Barber.

GARRICK'S celebrated "Bucks have at ye all."

And to conclude, by way of Eipilogue;

With the OLD MAN, BOY, and ASS.

Admittance

Back Seats

Doors to be opened at

Begin precisely at